

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

4:12CR3022

vs.

ALEJANDRO GARCIA,

Defendant.

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

I have received the presentence investigation report and accompanying addendum in this case. The defendant has objected to the presentence investigation report.

IT IS ORDERED:

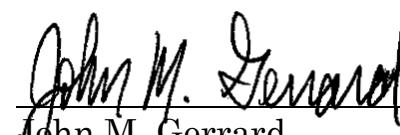

1. The Court will consult and follow the Federal Sentencing Guidelines to the extent permitted and required by United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), and subsequent cases. In this regard, the Court gives notice that, unless otherwise ordered, it will:
 - (a) give the advisory Guidelines such weight as they deserve within the context of each individual case and will filter the Guidelines' advice through the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) factors, but will not afford the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight;
 - (b) resolve all factual disputes relevant to sentencing by the greater weight of the evidence and without the aid of a jury;
 - (c) impose upon the United States the burden of proof on all Guidelines enhancements;
 - (d) impose upon the defendant the burden of proof on all Guidelines mitigators;
 - (e) depart from the advisory Guidelines, if appropriate, using pre-Booker departure theory; and
 - (f) in cases where a departure using pre-Booker departure theory is not warranted, deviate or vary from the Guidelines when there is a principled reason justifying a sentence different than that called for by application of the advisory Guidelines, again without affording the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight.

2. The defendant has filed a sentencing statement (filing 31) in which he objects to the presentence investigation report. Defendant claims that there is insufficient evidence that the "relevant conduct" for his present offense commenced in late 2009. Therefore, he argues, certain prior offenses should not have been included in the 10-year look-back period under U.S.S.G. § 4A1.2(e). Excluding those offenses would result in a lower Criminal History Category, and lower Guidelines range. Even though the defendant has pled guilty to conduct that occurred between (on or about) December 1, 2009 and October 31, 2011, the Court will resolve defendant's objections at sentencing. See filing 1 at 1; filing 29 at 3–4, 20–21, 24, 26.
3. Except to the extent, if any, that I have sustained an objection, granted a motion, or reserved an issue for later resolution in the preceding paragraph, the parties are notified that my tentative findings are that the presentence report is correct in all respects.
4. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, that party shall, as soon as possible (but in any event no later than three (3) business days before sentencing) file with the Court and serve upon opposing counsel an objection challenging these tentative findings, supported by a brief as to the law and such evidentiary materials as are required, giving due regard to the local rules of practice governing the submission of evidentiary materials. If an evidentiary hearing is requested, such filings should include a statement describing why a hearing is necessary and how long such a hearing would take.
5. Absent timely submission of the information required by the preceding paragraph, the Court's tentative findings may become final and the presentence report may be relied upon by the Court without more.
6. Unless otherwise ordered, any objection challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

Dated this 17th day of October, 2012.

BY THE COURT:

John M. Gerrard
United States District Judge
